“Commercial Real Estate Show” Now Broadcast on Wall Street Business Network Radio Stations Across the Nation

ATLANTA (Jan. 7, 2013) – Building on the show’s national online popularity and Atlanta radio audience, the “Commercial Real Estate Show” is now airing nationally on the Wall Street Business Network’s 10 radio stations.

Host Michael Bull, president of Bull Realty, launched the one-hour weekly program in October 2010 on WAFS Biz1190 AM in Atlanta.

The show examines national commercial real estate and business issues and features high-caliber guests from around the country, including well-known analysts, accountants, brokers, lenders, developers, attorneys and architects.

As of the first weekend in January, the show is now broadcast in the following markets (all times are local):

- Dallas-Fort Worth on KVCE 1160 AM, Saturdays, 4 to 5 p.m.
- Honolulu on KGU 760 AM, Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
- Houston on KTEK 1110 AM, Fridays, 10 to 11 a.m.
- Miami on WZAB 880 AM, Fridays, 5 to 6 p.m.
- Minneapolis-St. Paul on KYCR 1570 AM, Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
- Orlando, Fla., on WBZW 1520 AM, Saturdays, 12 to 1 p.m.
- Sacramento, Calif., on KSAC-FM 105.5, Saturdays, 9 to 10 a.m.
- San Francisco on KDOW 1220 AM, Sundays, 2 to 3 p.m.
- Seattle on KKOL 1300 AM, Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
- Atlanta on WAFS 1190 AM, Saturdays, 10 to 11 a.m.

The show's podcasts are also available on iTunes and www.CREShow.com.

"I've been delighted at the impact the show has had in just two years, and I'm extremely excited about the opportunity to continue to extend its reach," Bull said. "We can tell by the location of podcast downloads that the content is relevant to audiences across the globe. As we continue to add stations, the show's comprehensive analysis and enlightening conversations will reach a much larger audience."
