“Commercial Real Estate Show” Now Broadcast on Three New Outlets

ATLANTA (June 7, 2013) – Building on the show’s growing popularity, the “Commercial Real Estate Show” has begun airing on three new outlets: KIVA 1600 AM in Albuquerque, N.M., Talk 920 WGKA AM in Atlanta and The Liberty Express, an online radio station.

The show examines national commercial real estate and business issues by featuring high-caliber analysts, accountants, brokers, lenders, developers, attorneys and architects.

Host Michael Bull, president of Bull Realty, launched the one-hour weekly program in October 2010 on one station. The show has grown popular nationally and is now airing on 12 stations in 11 markets, on iTunes and on multiple websites.

“I am pleased with the impact the ‘Commercial Real Estate Show’ has had, and I’m excited to again extend its reach,” Bull said. “The feedback has been awesome. Listeners comment that the shows are informative and interesting. I’ll thank the guests publically for that right now.”

The show airs on its new stations at the following times:

- Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. MST on KIVA 1600 AM in Albuquerque
- Saturdays from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. EST on 920 WGKA AM in Atlanta

- Saturdays and Sundays from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. EDT on The Liberty Express.
